

Burry Heights Camp and Retreat Centre
Camper Standard of Conduct for Summer Camping Program

The success of any camp is due in part to the Board of Directors demanding the highest standards of safe and moral behaviour from staff, counsellors, and campers. For the benefit of those who may be unaware of our standards, the following represents a partial listing which covers the most obvious concerns.

SAFETY

- Smoking, alcohol, e-cigarettes or other vaporizers, and non-medicinal drugs are prohibited at camp.
- The possession/use of electronics including but not limited to iPods, headphones, smart watches, and personal cellphones, is not permitted at camp (unless permitted by the Director for extenuating circumstances).
- No food items are to be brought to camp.
- Except for swimming areas, foot protection is to be worn at all times.
- All waterfront areas and wooded areas are out-of-bounds unless the camper is participating in a supervised activity.

RESPECT FOR FELLOW CAMPERS AND STAFF

- The following will not be tolerated:
 - offensive or profane language,
 - physical or emotional abuse of another person.
- No scented products, such as perfume and body spray, are to be brought to camp.

RESPECT FOR PROPERTY AND NATURE

- Camp property and property belonging to individuals must not be disfigured, damaged or destroyed.
- Nature (plants and/or animals) must not be abused or harassed.

RESPECT FOR PRIVACY

- Unless invited, a camper must not enter a cabin or room other than the one assigned to him/her.
- Campers will not enter the area of other camps - Camp St. George, Lavrock, etc.

RESPECT FOR THE DUTIES OF OTHERS

- Campers will not enter the kitchen, office, or other areas specified by the Director, unless for assigned duties.

GENERAL

- Campers must strictly adhere to additional standards/rules/guidelines imposed by the Camp Director, and approved by the Board of Directors.
- A camper must attend all programmed activities unless excused by the Health Care Provider and/or Camp Director.
- Prior permission from the Camp Director must be obtained before leaving Camp.
- The Camp Director is to be informed of any unexpected visitors.
- Parents are discouraged to call campers except for emergencies.

The Camp Director in consultation with the Youth Programming Team has the authority to send a camper home for not conforming to the standards set out above. Any camper sent home will not be eligible for a registration fee refund and may not be eligible for consideration as a camper in the future.
